

The Highstreet

Walking down the high street
Sights I love to see
Butchers, bakers, green grocers
We're on a shopping spree

First a trip to Timothy White's
To buy some ointment for mums' leg
Then along to the greengrocers
To get our fruit and veg

Next into the butchers
To buy the weekly meats
Then on to Mr Hills
For a quarter pound of sweets

Now off to the bakery
To get some bread and cakes
Pop into the co-op
For Kellogg's cornflakes

We need to nip to woollies
To get a bar of lifebuoy
Then I'd have the chance
To look at all the toys.

Finally, Lyons corner house
For a nice hot cup of tea
String bags bursting at the seams
Our successful shopping spree!
